

Mr Sujeev Shakya is Founder Chair of Nepal Economic Forum, a Kathmandu-based private sector-led economic policy and research institution. He is also the Founder Chief Executive Officer of Beed Management, a Kathmandu-based international management company and advisory firm working in Asia and Africa. He is the Senior Advisor, Bhutan and Nepal, for Bower Group Asia, a United States strategic advisory firm. Prior to starting Beed in 2008, he worked with one of Nepal's largest business group for 20 years, including as Group President.

Mr Shakya is a thought leader who seamlessly traverses across many worlds. He writes and speaks extensively on business, development, economy and leadership. His Latest book, Nepal 2043 explores Nepal's economic and developmental future. He earned the title of Nepal's CEO (Chief Eternal Optimist) for the optimism he projected in his first book, Unleashing Nepal – Past Present and Future of the Economy, published in 2009 (Penguin, rev. 2013). He is also author of Unleashing The Vajra – Nepal's Journey between India and China (Penguin, 2020). He has written two other books in the Nepali language – Arthat Arthatantra (It's the Economy) and Arthat Pariwartan (It's the Change).